THE HICKMAN COURIER.

HICKMAN, KY.

FRIDAY, 1:14:10, 1895.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce T. J. Buchanan as a candidate for Representative in the next Kentucky General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce Dr. W. L. Evans as a candidate for Representative in the next Kentucky General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

J. C. Speight and Dr. W. L. Evans, candidates for Representative in the next Kentucky General Assembly, will appear at the following times and places:

Cummers, Friday night, Aug. 23, Hickman, Saturday, 2 p. m., Aug. 24, Hickman, Sunday night, Aug. 25, Hickman, Monday night, Aug. 26, Hickman, Tuesday night, Aug. 27, Hickman, Wednesday, 2 p. m., Aug. 28, Hickman, Thursday, 2 p. m., Aug. 29, Hickman, Friday night, Aug. 30, Hickman, Saturday, 2 p. m., Aug. 31, Hickman, Sunday, 2 p. m., Sept. 1, Hickman.

SEPTEMBER 21 has been designated as Bine and Gray day at the Atlanta Exposition.

A HARRISON county farmer offers to engage 100 barrels of corn in the field for eight.

PUBLICITY Herald says that he is satisfied that the fall will be an old-fashioned one.

In discussing the silver question, let us not lose sight of the fact that we are Democrats, and that our friends, the enemy, are as they always have been, on the left.

The Bowling Green Times sounds timely note of warning to the democrats, which it says: "This is a time for the democrats to split on a question of national politics or to bander in individual ambitions. Alliances created for the common good, and if this is done, the democrats in November will destroy every vestige of republicanism in the state."

A CHICAGO telegram says the negroes there are spilling for fight with the Italian militia in the Spring Valley camp, where there has been race trouble for some days.

The New York Press has published editorial apologizing for its publication, stating that the charges against Attorney General. It says it is impossible to say that the article was not printed. As the Courier Journal has remarked before, the Republican press is not to be trusted.

OF fifty American cities, thirty five are the local water supply, while one at Washington is owned by the federal government. In the remaining fourteen cities, the water is in the hands of private companies. The average charge for water per dwelling in cities where the water is owned by private parties is $18.80. The average charge in cities owned by the city is $10.00.

The St. Paul Herald-Examiner says that there is a movement of about $5 to each dwelling in the city of St. Paul, which is being used by municipal ownership.

THE Mr. Sterling Rutledge-Hickman trial says: "The election in this State in November will test every Democrat's devotion to his party and its principles. There was ever a time in the history of Kentucky that Democrats should forget their differences and unite to defeat every man who would do any harm to the State."

A FRANKFORT correspondent of the Palmetto News says that he has been given on a reliable authority that Senator Lindsey does not want the appropriation for the penitentiary, does not expect it and probably would not accept it if it were offered to him. The reason which is assigned for this is that, if Senator Lindsey takes that, from that point, he could not afford to accept a place where his expenses of living would be so great, and his income as a senator, Judge Lindsey says a large and paying law practice, so that he is compelled to abandon every hope of going to the bench, and his funds are thus reduced to a distinct financial loss in the exchange of places. While all this is true, there is a possibility that he would receive a lifetime job on the supreme bench.

THE SILVER TIDE BEGGING.

EX-GOV. JAS. B. McCREARY

One of the most gratifying signs of the times is the visible and rapidebb of the free silver tide that threatened to sweep the country some months ago. It was the most dangerous of all the political convulsions which have been invented for more than a generation, and it had its apparent source solely in the general depression of industry and widespread poverty among the people.

IMPORTANT.

The Democratic State Committee, meeting with all the Democratic members, are to meet at Louisville, to-morrow, Saturday, at 1 o'clock. Important campaign results will likely follow.

HON. R. T. TYLER, the democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, was in Louisville last week. Commenting on his presence there the Times says:

"Mr. Tyler expresses himself as being exceedingly anxious for the campaign to begin. He is anxious to take the stump and has placed his services at the disposal of the democratic state campaign committee. He will probably be assigned to duty in Southern and Central Kentucky. Mr. Tyler is an unusually good speaker, and his services are much needed in state affairs and issues."

It is evident, says the Palmetto News, that the republicans of Kentucky will be plentifully supplied with funds if such a supply can be secured by a vigorous passing of the hat. Republicans everywhere are being urged to contribute to the fund.

A CHICAGO telegram says the negroes there are spilling for fight with the Italian militia in the Spring Valley camp, where there has been race trouble for some days.

The New York Press has published editorial apologizing for its publication, stating that the charges against Attorney General. It says it is impossible to say that the article was not printed. As the Courier Journal has remarked before, the Republican press is not to be trusted.

THE BOAT RIDER.

Tom Waddell Arrested for the Killing of Charles Adjelet.

Tom Waddell was arrested and lodged in the County Jail at Mayfield Friday last charged with the murder of young Charles Adjelet, who was found dead in the railroad track at Boaz Station Monday last week, with a large gash in his head. For the past few days the Mayfield officers and railroad detective have been diligently investigating the case.

When Waddell was first found, he was afloat in the water, with an ugly gash in his head. He first professed ignorance of how the man met his death and afterwards and they both went to sleep on a train and fell off. The Mayfield Democrat seemed inclined to the opinion that the man was assaulted by an unknown assassin.

They had started on an foot for Paducah when they left Mayfield, and the boat rider was at some point between the two places and was thrown off near the bridge. The boat rider was a man named Weaver, who was a passenger as well as a shipper. If this man could be traced, it would be a great help to the police.

For several months last year the river was practically closed to the north of Cairo to our largest steamboats and the small ones. It was a great hardship on the people of the river.

THE BOAT RIDER.

Tom Waddell Arrested for the Killing of Charles Adjelet.

Tom Waddell was arrested and lodged in the County Jail at Mayfield Friday last charged with the murder of young Charles Adjelet, who was found dead in the railroad track at Boaz Station Monday last week, with a large gash in his head. For the past few days the Mayfield officers and railroad detective have been diligently investigating the case.

When Waddell was first found, he was afloat in the water, with an ugly gash in his head. He first professed ignorance of how the man met his death and afterwards and they both went to sleep on a train and fell off. The Mayfield Democrat seemed inclined to the opinion that the man was assaulted by an unknown assassin.

They had started on an foot for Paducah when they left Mayfield, and the boat rider was at some point between the two places and was thrown off near the bridge. The boat rider was a man named Weaver, who was a passenger as well as a shipper. If this man could be traced, it would be a great help to the police.

For several months last year the river was practically closed to the north of Cairo to our largest steamboats and the small ones. It was a great hardship on the people of the river.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor creases and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. The left edge of the page is bound, showing the stitching or staples of the book's binding. The overall tone is a warm, off-white or light cream.
